Society for the Promotion of the European Human Rights Model

It appears that people have decided to maintain alive the legacy of Nazi ideology in many counties. This is unfortunately a well known phenomenon; nevertheless when State bodies of a Member-State of the European Union are utilized by the Nazis to insidiously instill their revisionist view of History in the European Union and this is the case in Lithuania, we think that our duty is to warn the National and European authorities. All these events may lead us to think that the Prague Process as it is expressed, may have suffered partially of these insidious influences, since it might underestimate the crimes of Nazism as compared to Communism, taking into account the leading part played by Lithuania.

I-THE GENOCIDE RESEARCH CENTER AND ITS MUSEUM THE MUSEUM OF GENOCIDE WELCOME A NAZI AMONG ITS STAFF

The Lithuanian State has created a Genocide research center associated to a Museum called Museum of Genocide excluding the Holocaust and concentrating on Communist regime plight. A Museum of dedicated to communist plight is acceptable except that it utilizes abusively the word genocide and has recently welcome among its staff one of the founders of Nazism renewal, RICARDAS CEKUTIS more precisely in the Staff of the Genocide research Center. He is one of the main organizers of the annual Nazi March in Vilnius.

RICARDAS CEKUTIS was formerly the Parliamentary assistant of the Member of Parliament DALIA KUODYTE. She relieved him after he started to develop the following campaign slogan for the Municipal elections: "Without gays, blacks, reds and camp Gypsies" and was then hired in another State body "THE GENOCIDE RESEARCH CENTER".

RICARDAS CEKUTIS

In addition to the evident etymological disrespect, we may understand now the ideological orientation attempt to pervert the real meaning of the word Genocide.

RICARDAS CEKUTIS collaborates with MINDAUGAS MURZA who tried to get official status for the Lithuanian Nazi party.

II-A SUPPORTER OF NAZISM IS A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT WHO WAS UNTIL HIS EXCULSION IN 2010, A MEMBER OF THE PARTY "TS-LKD" OF THE PRIME MINISTER ANDRIUS KUBILIUS

TS-LKD is shortly and wrongly called Christian Democrats Party –because LKD (Lithuanian Christian Democrats) - was merged with TS (Homeland Union), a Nationalist Party.

KAZIMIERAS UOKA is a Member of Parliament called SEIMAS and was until last year a member of the TS-LKD, he was recently excluded from TS-LKD but remains Member of Parliament. KAZIMIERAS UOKA obtained the official authorization for the Nazi March.

KAZIMIERAS UOKA was in the leading group of the last Nazi March of 11 March 2011.

It must be noted that the first Gay pride was authorized in Vilnius in May 2010 despite a last minute attempt to prohibit it again and that KAZIMIERAS UOKA came to insult the participants and crossed over the police line in the direction of the participants until he was stopped by the police.

On 15 March 2011, KAZIMIERAS UOKA had the opportunity to develop his ideology on the National TV channel in an unbalanced debate opposing him with the support of another fascist to lonesome democrat.

IV- DURING THE POST COMMUNIST ERA: NO JUDGEMENT AGAINST THE LITHUANIAN WAR NAZI CRIMINALS WAS COMPLETED

The evident refusal of Lithuanian prosecutors to punish the Lithuanian Nazi war criminals emboldened those ultranationalists who refused to admit the Lithuanian complicity in Holocaust crimes.

At least fifteen Lithuanian Nazi war criminals, who had escaped to the USA after WW2, were stripped of their US citizenship when their past was revealed and returned to Lithuania. Only three were brought to trial for their Holocaust crimes.

The two most important cases were the following former Lithuanian Commander of the Secret Police called “Saugumas” of the district of Vilnius, ALEKSANDRAS LILEIKIS and his deputy KAZYS GIMZAUSKAS were, only prosecuted after they were declared medically unfit to stand trial and thus did not appear at their trial and could not be punished.

The third case is also related to a member of “Saugumas” of the district of Vilnius; ALGIMANTAS DAILIDE. He was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment, but the judges refused to implement the sentence because he had to take care of his ailing wife.
