Who's Who in "Lithuanian" Antifa and Anarchija? [websites antifa.lt and anarchija.lt, literally "Who's Who in 'Lithuanian' Antifa and Anarchy?"] Who Supports and Finances Them?

It is bewildering that no Lithuanian law-enforcement structure in any way has taken an interest in the public anti-constitutional, anti-state, anti-Lithuanian activity of all these leftist extremists and terrorists: "antifa," "anarchists," "the new left."

So far they are [just] selling [their] Lithuanian citizenship. But before they sell Lithuania... (published by zeppelinus, March 18, 2011)

Here is the public list of cosmopolitans, anarchists, "defenders of sexual minorities," "the new left," selling [their] citizenship in the "fascist" Lithuanian state (March 18, 2011):

"DON'T CONSENT TO FASCISM: SELL YOUR FASCIST LITHUANIAN CITIZENSHIP!"

Participating:

1. Agnė Patackė, Feminist Frontas
2. Aeon Flux, pseudonym of a [female] leftist extremist
3. Agnė Bagočiūtė, public servant
4. Agnė Kyguolytė, art historian, resident of Sweden
5. Aistė Diržiūtė, university student
6. Aivaras Stabingis, baritone in a choir
7. Aušra Karklytė, journalist
8. Aušra Kaziliūnaitė, poet, film maker, Vilnius Pedagogical University student
9. Aurora Fabler, pseudonym of [female] leftist extremist
10. Aušra Pažėraitė, doctor of history, Judaism expert, lecturer at Vilnius University's Religious Studies and Research Center
11. Darius Pocevičius, Anarchija.lt editor
12. Džiastina Laurutytė, model from Kelmė, Lithuania
13. Donatas Paulauskas, Atgimimas and Delfi writer, non-traditional human rights activist [gay rights?]

35. Vika Matuzaitė, social pedagogue, organizer of volunteer work
36. Vytautas Ganusauskas, Netherlands resident
37. Jelena Miatlik, home-maker
38. Viktor Stiagg, armchair revolutionary

Five “enthusiasts” (Darius Pocevičius, Kasparas Pocius, Roberta Raudonė Agnė Patacke, Mantvydas Cornholio) created this event [group] and over 4 months collected the names of those who would like to rid themselves of the hated citizenship of “the fascist Republic of Lithuania” and receive at least minimal material compensation for it as well as offers from potential buyers.

Since some of these sellers are hiding behind pseudonyms, we will remove the veils from two of them: Mantvydas Cornholio is Mantvydas Cinikas. Mrs. Egle Ciniskienė [presumably his wife], born in 1955, signs pages on anarchija.lt as Egle Cornholio.

Zeppelinus [a neo-Nazi blogger’s pseudonym], so deeply hated by the cosmopolitans, determined who the “head” of antifa.lt is:

“If anyone doesn’t know already, this is a group connected with the pro-Communist webpage antifa.lt, whose ideologue and one of whose head editors is our well-known Brussels resident and Israeli citizen Sergey Kanovich, better known to Lithuanian readers as the writer Sergejus Kanovičius on the Catholic webpage Bernadiniai.lt . Incidentally, he recently took up the honorable duties of press representative of the Lithuanian Jewish Community.

The most interesting thing is that no Lithuanian law-enforcement structure in any way has taken an interest in the public anti-constitutional, anti-state, anti-Lithuanian activity of all these leftist extremists and terrorists: “antifa,” “anarchists,” “the new left.”

They open plea for selling “fascist Lithuanian citizenship,” in their much-published little articles they deride the Republic of Lithuania calling her “Litchujienija,” call for “smashing the state” and so on.

But the liberalcosmpolitans who rule us do not pay attention to this, after all these are their own, frequent authors of the cosmopolitan “Lietrytis” [the daily newspaper Lietuvos rytas], while the patriots of the Lithuanian State and the Lithuanian People, proponents of the Lithuanian Language and Lithuanian-ness are a horrible headache to the liberal mankurts insinuating themselves in the structures of the State of the Lithuanian People, [a headache] which must be derided and destroyed at any cost.

Even by employing the [sort of] terror act which the Mason, antinationalist, anti-Christian, admirer of Israel and pederastas carried out...

And who really is this terrorist murderer Breivik?

First of all, this Breivik is not in any way a nationalist and not even a Nazi, but a Mason cosmopolitan: Anders Behring-Breivik (born 1979) is a member of the St. John Lodge in Oslo of the Norwegian Order of Masons, St. Olaus T.D. Tre Søliler No. 8, Oslo [a street address?].

Freemason Anders Behring

<http://www.tv2.no/nyheter/prosjekt/frimurerer/losjer/soilene/medlem/80189>

His own words he left show what his political views are:

“...We must make sure that we cause other cultural conservatives to adopt our anti-racist views favorable to homosexuality and Israel. When that happens, we will be able to move up to another level.” – comment left by Breivik on document.no on September 14, 2009.

And he shot members of the Norwegian Labor Party only because this party, in his opinion, is harmful to Israel and Judeans-Jews and supports Palestinian Muslims.

P.S. In general, even his ethnic origins aren't clear: it seems his mother was a Jewess, and the surname Breivik is wide-spread among well-known Jews in Norway.

By the way, Norwegian nationalists are already accusing Breivik of working for the Israeli Mossad. It is already known Breivik visited Israel (and also, incidentally, Russia—his Manifesto praises Putin highly—and Belarus) and there he was engaged in something unknown—it is already being guessed that he did training at a special camp using firearms in urban situations and on urban partisan tactics.

This is what the Israeli press is writing about Breivik:

The Israeli daily The Jerusalem Post in the article “Norway Attack Suspect Had Anti-Muslim, Pro-Israel Views” calls Breivik's views “pro-Israeli...right-wing Zionist.”

It says he mentions Israel 359 times and Jews 324 times in his manifesto. For example, he wrote: “So let's fight together with Israel, together with our brother Zionists against all anti-Zionists, against all cultural Marxists/multiculturalists.”

Noted Jewish intellectual Gilad Atzmon in his article “Was the Massacre in Norway a Reaction to BDS?” raises the question:

“At this time I cannot firmly blame Israel, its agents or volunteer helpers (sayanim), but having collected all the information and having considered all the possibilities, it can be shown that Anders Behring Breivik might really have been a Shabbos goy.”

And here is another of the widely reported media myths: that Breivik was against “multiculturalism” and that he was a “right-wing nationalist” (and by the way, why has the elementary thought not even have occurred to any journalist: how can a Mason cosmopolitan be called a nationalist?).

Breivik’s Manifesto says something completely different...

He was radically predisposed against Muslims exclusively (independent of their race), and considered all other immigrants (also independent of their race) who, in his opinion, assimilated easily a positive phenomenon.

He hates Muslims, again, for a very specific reason: because they harm Israel. And therefore he accused members of the Norwegian Labor Party of obsequiousness toward Muslim Palestinians, the enemies of Israel and Jews, and for that reason shot them.

Furthermore, Breivik many times has stressed he is an anti-racist, and that he considers Muslims (in regard to their faith, not race), racists, neo-Nazis and right-wing (“talk”) nationalists the primary threat to Europe, the European Union and Israel.

And here’s what Breivik really wrote about the “ethnic nationalists” he so fiercely hated:

“These parties against immigrants do not mobilize. Instead of doing that, they propagate strong right-wing nationalist and incite sentiments directed against the European Union, as well as antisemitism (especially Poland’s Self-Defense party and Hungary’s Life and Justice party), and opposition to other ethnic groups, especially Roma (Gypsies),” A. B. Breivik writes in his Manifesto.

In summing up the views of this Mason terrorist, it is totally clear that they coincide like two peas in a pod with the “truths” broadly proclaimed by our “antifa/anarchists.”

Fortunately our “antifaists” still aren’t shooting people they don’t like on the streets, so far they just beat them with iron bars in the head in the middle of the day in the center of Kaunas, as was recently beaten the young academic Tadas Kavolis:

Attempted Murder in the Middle of Kaunas: Vytautas Magnus University Academic T. Kavolis the Victim of “Antifa” Violence

<http://www.versijos.com/2011/05/11/pasikesinimas-kauno-centre-vdu-mokslininkas-t-kavolis-%E2%80%93-%E2%80%9Eantifasistu%E2%80%9C-smurto-auka/>

And openly threaten physical harm to Lithuanian patriots in their many comments on anarchija.lt as well as delfi.lt (especially the Russian-language version), and other websites...

But the more “literate” cosmopolitans write complaints directly to all institutions [saying] that ethnic patriots must be driven out of all employment and thus left to die of hunger.

But the press so liberal to our cosmopolitans and the “human rights defenders,” speaking broken Lithuanian although in great numbers, pretend that they don’t see any of this and that in general this is nothing but “innocent children’s games”...

After the all the gravest danger to the “values” of the cosmopolitan liberalism is the Lithuanian Language, the Lithuanian People and the Independent State of Lithuania: it is the active defenders and proponents of these ethnic and fundamental state values who are daily cursed by the liberal cosmopolitans in their newspapers and on their websites, calling for banning, destroying and driving them out of work and out of the military and in general putting them in prison...

This is what Lithuania has come to, governed for twenty years by traitors and cosmopolitans, who have rebranded themselves from the Communist Youth, the Communist Party Central Committee secretary-nomenklaturists and KGB reserves.

In closing, a rhetorical question: how much more will the Lithuanian People suffer this disgusting daily derision of the State of the Lithuanian People and the People themselves, of all Lithuanian-ness?

Because it is impossible to work with the mankurts now governing the State of the Lithuanian People.

The Lithuanian People created the Lithuanian State (and thrice recreated it during the 20th century after seizure by enemies) in order to defend the vital interests of the People and to thrive on the land of their ancestors.

But the retarded cosmopolitan mankurts who have run Lithuania for twenty years now seek to destroy the Lithuanian People, the Lithuanian Language and Lithuanian-ness overall, and the more things go on, the more stubbornly [do they seek to accomplish this].

Haven't they done everything in order to make Lithuanians leave the land of their forefathers never to return? And aren't those patriots who stay in Lithuania and attempt to preserve Lithuanian-ness persecuted in every manner and decried for every and any Lithuanian activity?

Lithuanians, wake up and take a good look at the cosmopolitan mankurts who govern the State of the Lithuanian People...

We are compelled to create such a massive People's Party that it will be capable of sweeping all these liberal-cosmopolitan mankurts who are comprehensively destroying the Lithuanian Language, the Lithuanian People and the Independent State of Lithuania into the dustbin of history.

Everyone who cares about Lithuanian-ness—the preservation and celebration of the Lithuanian People, Language, Dialects, Culture, Nature, Heritage, Family and Morality in the State of Lithuania, ethnic Lithuanian lands and in exile—must unite and work together.

Enough sleeping and running away to other countries! It is not milk and honey there either.

The strength of the People lies not in the homogeneity of its members, but in unity seeking the main goal: the prosperity of the People.

So let's unite, Lithuanians!

[We] still need to constantly publicize the names of judges who convict [internet] commentators unfriendly to pederasts, the names of prosecutors who bring such cases and others to make a list of retarded anti-state individuals and to name their "achievements"...

Sniper, 38 [caliber] ammunition, and the end. It can be done more subtly,-on the cross and letting smoke out,... do you really not know how this is done? who needs talk, [we] need to work accurately and that's all...

Here's another fact that's come to light:

The night after the massacre, when A. Breivik was [already] arrested, someone changed his profile on Facebook, writing "Christian and conservative."

Who did that and why?

It still isn't clear, and the Norwegian police and security are also remaining silent...
