

Thursday, March 24th
Gambrell 152
3:30pm

RECOVERING LITHUANIAN YIDDISH BETWEEN APOCALYPSE AND HOMELAND EXTINCTION: POST-HOLOCAUST YIDDISH DIALECTOLOGY IN EASTERN EUROPE

Dr. Katz is one of the preeminent scholars of Yiddish in the world. A former Guggenheim fellow and Visiting Professor at Yale University, Dr. Katz founded and directed Yiddish Studies at Oxford University and the Vilnius Yiddish Institute at Vilnius University, Lithuania. He has won both the Manger Prize and the Zhitlovsky Prize in Yiddish Literature.

This event is sponsored by:
Office of International and Comparative Education
The Walker Institute of International and Area Studies
The European Studies Program
The Russian-Eurasian Studies Program
The Linguistics Program
The Jewish Studies Program

