On the initiative of Mr. Emanuelis Zingeris the position of Lithuanian Parliament on Prague Declaration become clear

2009.02.21

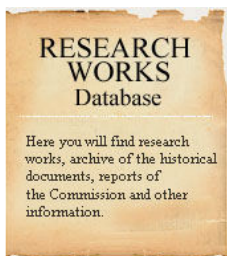

On the initiative of Mr. E. Zingeris, the Chairman of the International Historical Commission and the member of Lithuanian Parliament, the Parliament resolution "Prague Declaration on European Conscience and Communism" will be discussed in Lithuanian Parliament Seimas. In this project it is proclaimed that Seimas maintain the Prague Declaration on European Conscience and Communism (June 3, 2008).

In the project it is also informed that Seimas is in favor of the implementation of the declarations' goals and ask other countries to join this declaration as well as to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the Molotov-Ribbentrop Pact, the treaty between Nazi Germany and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics that divided the independent European countries into spheres of influence.
