Your little friends with AMB [Brazauskas] and 2K in front of them sucked up so much money for the "integration" of all kinds of negroes and pederasts that, according to your logic, we should be at the peak of civilization by now. So look for the buds of civilization in their pockets...

and 2K, I already said... 2K is not just the Kubilius-Kirkilas gang, it's the entirety of contemporary liberastia, socialistia and other pederastia.

batka Machno [?] doesn't lead anyone behind him except for several drunken bandits. His contemporary prototype is Uspaskich. But a nationalist [ethnic] state, Morta, is one where the government, i.e., sovereignty belongs to the [ethnic] nation, which is what is written in the Constitution of the Lithuanian Republic. Not to some sort of "citizens" but to the [ethnic] Lithuanian nation. This is also the principle of the supremacy of national law above all transnational formations, such as the EU, which we were shoved into through deceit and counterfeits. In a nationalist [ethnic] state, for example, characters such as Auštrevičius, Andriukaitis and Karosas would be shot without hesitation and that would be [the] right [thing to do], for treason. Well, you will see very soon...

Morta, calm down, it would be enough in Lithuania to shoot just a few hundred ass-lickers of Brussels and Moscow, what sort of aggression is that? It is an inevitability, in order to cleanse ourselves of garbage. The death penalty just needs to be returned to the criminal code to accomplish this. Well, if you don't know what the Lithuanian nation is, then I'm afraid you are about to ask what the alphabet is...

"We will govern ourselves": this is the principle by which the nationalist [ethnic] states live, not anarchists. The best example is Japan. And what low the cosmopolitans have brought us to, we all know well. The most typical example of a cosmopolitan state is the USSR. Unfortunately the EU is tending toward exactly that...

Ričardas Čekutis Lietuvių tautą sudaro lietuvių tautybės žmonės, Morta. "Modernus" požiūris, esą jokių tautų nėra, veda į absoliučią degradaciją, kurios pasekmės - pilkos bestuburės belytės ir betautės bukagalvių vartotojų masės sukūrimas. Tokią masę lengva valdyti ir mulkinti, melžti jos turimus resursus - žodžiu, visų kosmopolitų svajonė. O tamstos brolio gyvenimas Japonijoje anaipol nepaneigia fakto, kad tai ir yra tautinės valstybės modelis, kurio taip pat niekas nedraudžia tobulinti.

People of Lithuanian ethnicity comprise the Lithuanian nation [people], Morta. The "modern" view that there are no nations [ethnicities] leads to absolute degradation, resulting in the creation of a gray spineless genderless and nationality-less mass of obtuse consumers. It is easy to govern and trick this sort of mass, to milk it of its resources: in a word, the dream of all cosmopolitans. And your brother's life in Japan in no way denies the fact that it really is the model of a nationalist [ethnic] state, which of course no one says can't be improved upon.

Ričardas Čekutis Ir ką jie išsprendė "pragmatiškai"? Kad legalizavo narkotikus, negimusių kūdikių ir invalidų žudynes, įteisino pederastiją, pajuodo ir visi apsirūkę prakalbo arabiškai? Degradavusi šalis, kurioje taip pat yra normalių žmonių ir kurie arba pažadins dar gyvą sveikos tautos dalį, arba išnyks galutinai.

And what have they solved "pragmatically?" That they legalized narcotics, the mass murder of unborn children and the disabled, legalized pedophilia, turned black and all smokers spoke Arabic? It is a decadent country where there are also normal people who will either wake up the still living portion of the healthy ethnicity [nation] or will go extinct forever.

Ričardas Čekutis Morta, aš esu bene laimingiausias žmogus pasaulyje, todėl noriu, kad ir kiti tokie būtų - laisvi ir maksimaliai padorūs. Dabar matau, kad kelių šimtų, pastatytų prie sienos, gali ir nepakakti... Nieko tokio, kitiems suveiks bent prevenciškai - "įsisavinant" eilines ES pašalpas ar "paramą" drebės ir prakaituos rankelės...

Morta, I am probably the happiest person in the world, that's why I want others to be, too, to be free and the most moral. Now I see that it might not be enough to place several hundred against the wall... It doesn't matter, they will serve as a preventive measure to others: "acquiring" regular EU welfare and "support," their little hands will tremble and perspire...
