Almost Half Million Euros Wasted on Palace of Sports Reconstruction Project

Now that the Lithuanian Government has rejected a plan to outfit a conference center in the Palace of Sports falling into disrepair in Vilnius, Lithuania's Turto bankas maintains they've received no directions on how to use the space in the future. Nonetheless, this Lithuanian state property bank says it has to maintain the building and is considering carrying out necessary maintenance work there.

Turto bankas, the state agency responsible for the project, said they cannot comment further on the Government's reasons for rejecting the plan. Government reps told BNS they will seek alternatives to the Congress Center conference center project.

“For now all we can say is the Government resolution for reconstructing the Palace of Sports as the Congress Center has not been rescinded, annulled or amended,” Turto bankas told BNS.

“Neither has Turto bankas received any new directives to assess other possible alternative development of this site, and has made no such assessments,” the Turto bankas rep said.

“The pandemic has changed the market and environment for conference tourism so plans for this project’s earlier visions have been revised. The Government is seeking other solutions,” prime minister press spokeswoman Rasa Jakilaitienė told BNS.

Vakar Sudervės žydų kapinėse buvo palaidotos senos šventų raštų knygos ir tekstai.

Judėjų tradicija turi ypatingą požiūrį į šventas knygas ir tekstus, kuriuose yra minimas Aukščiausiojo vardas arba žodžiai iš Toros.

Nuo kasdienio ir dažno skaitymo šios knygos susidėvi, apiplyšta, todėl tampa nebetinkamomis maldai ar studijoms. Šios knygos sinagogose renkamos ir saugomos specialiose vietose. Kai tokių knygų susirenka
