Dear Dr Guggenheim,

I trust this letter finds you thriving and creating as always.

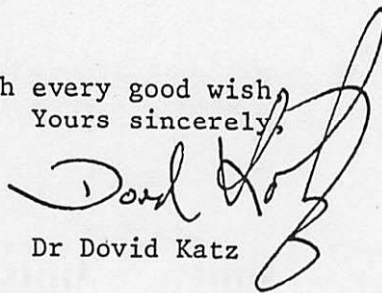

I am writing to extend a very warm and cordial invitation to you to participate and read a paper before the first annual Oxford Winter Symposium in Yiddish Language and Literature to be held on 16 and 17 December 1985 at Oxford on the topic Origins of the Yiddish Language.

We would be most honoured and delighted if you are able to participate. Should this not be possible, we would be most happy to arrange for your paper to be read before the Symposium. I very much hope you can participate.

Finally, I was wondering if we could possibly purchase two additional copies of your masterly Jiddisch auf alemannischem Sprachgebiet. If this is possible, please have the publisher make the bill out to 'Oxford Programme in Yiddish' at the above address.

I very much look forward to the honour and pleasure of meeting with you personally.

With every good wish,
Yours sincerely,

Dr Dovid Katz

PS: I credited you most warmly in the Introduction to my thesis for your kindness in corresponding with me some years ago on questions of Yiddish vocalism. Many thanks again!
