

<https://defendinghistory.com/wp-content/uploads/2022/09/Rive-Reyn-Rein-on-Avrom-Avremke-Rein-compressed.pdf>

Translation of p. 2 of the letter from Riva Rein (Ríve Reyn) to Dovid Katz (8 April 1992):

Avrom Reyn

centered as caption to photocopied photo [on p. 2 of original]

born in the shtetl Mikháleshik in 1907. Became an orphan at the age of 13 and the yoke of helping his mother and two sisters and a brother fell upon him. In 1939 he got married in the town Línep ([Lintup, Lintupy]), where in 1941 the horrific war fell upon him. Surviving in the “ghetto” the massacre of his dear ones he left for the partisans. When Byelorussia was liberated in 1944 he returned to Línep. At the end of 1990 he arrived in the Land of Israel where he passed away on February 14th 1992.